November 15, 2017 |

Briefs

Re-establishing a Human Rights Commission in BC

It is our hope that the BC Human Rights Commission will serve as a permanent institution safe-guarding the rights of BC's residents and communities, while setting the bar on human rights education higher than it has ever been in this province.