January 18, 2017 |

Briefs

BCFED, affiliates press WCB to improve payments to injured workers

The BC Federation of Labour and member unions are calling on the Workers' Compensation Board to improve award payments to workers who've been injured at work and left with a permanent or partial disability.

In a recent submission to the Board, the BCFED spotlights the unfair way the WCB calculates real earnings loss for permanently or partially disabled workers and calls for immediate changes to solve the inequity.

Click here to read our submission