The 24th Annual Labour Community Christmas Dinner will serve a spectacular family turkey dinner on Christmas Eve at Vancouver's Maritime Labour Centre and Whalley's Royal Canadian Legion Upper Auditorium in North Surrey.

Following the turkey and trimmings, every family will head home with a hamper of food, vegetables, clothes and toys for children.

"Our annual dinner is one of the many ways that the labour movement gives back to the community," says Laird Cronk, President of the BC Federation of Labour.

Over 3,000 people and families take part in this annual tradition.

The Federation gratefully acknowledges the support of the Canadian Fishing Company, the Overwaitea Food Group, BC Fresh Vegetables, Community Savings and many other supporters and donors.
