March 20, 2018 |

Releases

BCFED to make recommendations Wednesday to labour code review panel to restore balance, fairness to BC’s labour laws

MEDIA ADVISORY

Vancouver-The BC Federation of Labour will outline a dozen recommendations to the Labour Relations Code Review Panel on how the new government can level the playing field for working people after 16 years of the BC Liberals, who tilted the laws to favour employers.

What: BCFED President Lanzinger to present submission to Labour Relations Code Review Panel.

When: Wednesday March 21, 2018.

9:00 am - 9:30 am.

Starting at 9:45 am, BCFED President Irene Lanzinger is available to speak with media.

Where: The Coast Hotel, 146 Kingston Street, Victoria

Event highlights include:

? First public hearing of the Labour Relations Code Review Panel;

? BCFED President Irene Lanzinger to present 12 recommendations to the Labour Relations Code Review Panel;

? The BCFED’s submission will be available at 9:00 am Wednesday on www.bcfed.ca.

-30-

For more information contact Stephen Howard, communications director, 778 879 0707